

UYVINES SAMPLE ITINERARIES

One-Day Itinerary

Two Wineries

If you want to do a one-day visit to wineries near Montevideo, you should consider visiting Bodega Pizzorno and Bodega Bouza.

- At 9:30 am your driver will pick you up and drive you to Bodega Pizzorno located in the Canelón Chico region, close to the Rio de la Plata. There, you will experience a fantastic tour of the winery, where you will learn a century's worth of history and tradition in wine-making.

-Wine Tasting at Bodega Pizzorno: After the tour you will enjoy the myriad of options that Bodega Pizzorno has to offer. You will be able to choose from different types of wines and pairings depending on your budget and preferences. Delight your taste buds with typical artisanal snacks designed to be paired with their exclusive wines.

- Your driver will then take you to your next location, Bodega Bouza. This small chateau is only minutes away from Montevideo. In this quiet place surrounded by nature, you can enjoy a fantastic lunch at their restaurant, which offers a complete gastronomic affair with a wide variety of flavors to experience. Some of their dishes include a paté, which has Tannat as one of the main ingredients. There are delicious beef options as well as seafood and vegetarian-friendly dishes. After lunch you will have the opportunity to decide how to spend your leisure time, whether it's exploring the property, having a wine tour, or visiting their charming vintage car collection before returning to your accommodations in the city.

Punta del Este Itineraries

The wineries at Punta del Este have a unique and special beauty. You can choose between one-day or two-day itineraries to enjoy an unforgettable experience.

One-Day Itinerary

- Your driver will pick you up in the morning to take you to Alto de la Ballena, a bodega that is 15 km away from the coast of the Atlantic Ocean.

- Wine tasting at Alto de La Ballena: Upon arriving, you will have the chance to taste their exclusive wines. Prepare yourself to enjoy the different tasting options and stunning views this place will offer. This is one of the most scenic wineries in the country, and you can even have a wonderful picnic while tasting some of their best wines. Each tasting is accompanied with bread, cheese, and olive oil.

- Wine Tasting at Viña Edén: Afterwards, your driver will take you to what many call Tuscany of Uruguay, to the north of the eastern side of Laguna del Sauce. There you will visit Viña Edén, a place hidden among the mountain range that will give you a unique experience. Viña Edén takes immense pride in their restaurant menu, which is inspired by locally produced fresh organic products, offering nothing but the freshest food when enjoying lunch. Here you will also be able to taste their wines, which are made with the oceanic influence. Experience an interesting guided tour of the facilities before going back to the hotel.

Two-Day Itinerary

If you want to have a deeper experience exploring everything Punta del Este has to offer, one day might not be enough to do everything you'd like to try. Don't worry, we have a two day itinerary for those who can't get enough of this paradisiacal location.

- Your driver will pick you up to take you to Alto de La Ballena. Upon arriving, you will have the chance to taste their exclusive wines. Prepare yourself to enjoy the different tasting options and stunning views this place will offer. This is one of the most scenic wineries in the country, and you can even have a wonderful picnic while tasting some of their best wines. Each tasting is accompanied with bread, cheese, and olive oil.

- After this amazing wine-tasting experience, your driver will take you to Estancia Vik, right outside the town of Jose Ignacio, in the Uruguayan grasslands. This vibrant coastal retreat has countless options for you to enjoy such as their pool area, their bonfire pit at the beach and their renowned restaurant, El Asador. Here, get ready to be delighted by their delicious Uruguayan barbeque, which is a staple dish of the country. Afterwards, you will be able to spend the night at their guest suites and regain some energy after a long day.

- The next day, your driver will be ready to take you to your next location, Bodega Garzon. This place is located half an hour inland from the coast. The scenery ruled by rolling green hills and vibrant animal life mixed with a luxurious estate will take your breath away.

Here, you can choose between many activities to spend your day. Among some of the options you will be presented with are hikes along the vineyards, exploring the hidden corners of the winery, cooking classes, and blending sessions where you will be able to create your own blend, which will be assessed by their sommelier. In Garzon, getting in touch with nature is easy. For lunch, enjoy their picnic among the vineyards, where you will enjoy a full basket of food and gorgeous views of the surroundings before returning to your accommodations in Punta del Este.
